REPORT FOR TUESDAY 26TH JULY

709 Prime Lambs

It was fantastic to see more than a shed full of sheep forward at Stratford, with nearly 50% more lamb entries and over 100% more entries in the ewe section than expected presale.

Vendors panicked as abattoirs cut their killing days forcing them into the markets, a serious lack of grass and the seasonal prices set in, as the general public go on holiday, along with schools closing and it being too hot to eat a Sunday roast leg of lamb, which saw an expected plummet from the fantastic prices that we have been used too.

73 Standards – AF & RF Slatter sold 38.5kg lambs to 228p, so did AW Wheeler with 37.5kg lambs and JR King with 36.5kg lambs; RM Phillips & Partners sold to 223p for 38.5kg lambs; R Peach sold 36.5kg lambs to 222.5p; D & S Hutsby sold to 221p for 37kg lambs; and Mandy Gasson sold to 220p for 36.5kg lambs.
